RE: Strategic Communications and Public Affairs Support for the Information
Affairs Authority of the Kingdom of Bahrain through Joe Trippi and Associates

Dear Mr. Trippi,

This letter is to confirm that your firm, on behalf of the Information Affairs Authority of the Kingdom of Bahrain, wishes to retain Sanitas International, its agents and assigns to provide strategic counsel, public affairs and other media communications services for the purpose of supporting the needs of the government of the Kingdom of Bahrain. We look forward to developing and strengthening our relationship while working closely with both you and your client.

Actual scope of work, terms of agreement, timetable for implementation, and fees for said services and additional expenses will be based on our initial contract and memorialized in a separate agreement to follow. Retainer and other fee arrangements will be billed as determined by the scope of work being now being negotiated.

Compensation and expenses will be billed monthly on a time and materials basis.

By engaging in some form with Sanitas International you also understand that any agreements and other supplemental materials may be required under Federal law to be filed with the US Department of Justice in reference to our support to the Information Affairs Authority of the Kingdom of Bahrain through Joe Trippi and Associates.

Sanitas International looks forward to helping you achieve your goals and increase awareness for the Kingdom of Bahrain with a wide range of audiences and stakeholders in the United States. We also look forward to a long and productive relationship with both you and your team around the globe and are eager to start working on your behalf and on behalf of the Information Affairs Authority of the Kingdom of Bahrain.
