RE: Strategic Communications and Stakeholder Engagement for the Libya Institute for Advanced Studies (LIAS)

Per our recent conversations, Sanitas International Inc. (Sanitas) is honored to support the Libya Institute for Advanced Studies (LIAS) and its Chairman Dr. Aref Ali Nayef during this critical transition period in North African politics.

This letter is to confirm that the LIAS wishes to retain the retention of global consulting firm, Sanitas International to support strategic communications, public affairs and outreach to key stakeholders in the United States and Europe. Our team will focus efforts to strengthen a dialogue with Western Audiences (U.S and Europe) educate audiences on the current situation in Libya and to articulate a realistic approach to improving the lives for all the Libyan people and promoting democracy and stability now and for the future of the country. Part of this effort will be to assist in a robust Western-based strategic communications and public affairs program and to build public-private partnerships in the previous ways we have discussed and to look at other areas of opportunity and coordination.

The actual scope of work, terms of agreement, timetable for implementation, and fees for said services and expenses will be based on a follow up agreement. Retainer and other fee arrangements will be finalized with a detailed scope of work being now being finalized.

Compensation may be in the form of a monthly retainer or some other series of payments, with an up-front payment also yet to be determined.

Sanitas International looks forward to helping LIAS and Dr. Aref Ali Nayef achieve your strategic goals with a wide range of audiences and stakeholders to include top-tier media, Congress, the Obama Administration, think tanks and other key audiences. We also look forward to a long and productive relationship with you and we are eager to begin working on your behalf and on behalf of the people of Libya.

Please sign this letter and return it to the address given below. Work will start upon our receipt of this letter, finalization of the scope of work and upon receipt of the agreed upon fees.

Very truly yours,

On behalf of the Sanitas Team

I have read the above letter and agree and accept the terms and the conditions set forth therein.
