9. Independent Contractor. The relationship created hereunder between the Client and Consultant shall be solely that of independent contractors entering into an agreement. Neither party shall make any representation or assertion or take any actions which could imply or establish any agency, joint venture, partnership, employment or trust relationship between the parties. Neither party shall have any authority or power whatsoever to enter into any agreement, contract or commitment on behalf of the other, or to create any liability or obligation whatsoever on behalf of the other, to any person or entity.

10. Specific Performance. Without intending to limit the remedies available to the parties hereto, each party acknowledges that a breach of any of the agreements and other promises set forth in sections 5, 6 and/or 7 of this Agreement may result in material and irreparable injury to any other party for which there is no adequate remedy at law, and that it may not be possible to measure damages for such injuries with reasonable certainty. In the event of such a breach or threat thereof, the aggrieved party shall be entitled to obtain preliminary and/or permanent injunctions or such other relief as may be required to specifically enforce any of the promises and other covenants of the other party under sections 5, 6 and/or 7 of this Agreement.

11. Mediation. The parties agree that, except for actions solely seeking specific performance of the obligations of the parties under sections 5, 6 and/or 7 of this Agreement, any dispute, difference or controversy arising under this Agreement shall be submitted to non-binding, confidential mediation by a private mediator mutually agreed upon by the parties. Such mediation shall be a precondition of bringing suit on this Agreement.

12. Miscellaneous. The internal laws of the State of New York shall govern the provisions of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is found to be illegal or invalid, such provision will be modified to the extent necessary to comply with applicable law and refashioned to best approximate the original intent of the parties, and the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms. No delay or omission by either party in exercising any right under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver of that or any other right, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument duly executed by both parties. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts and may be delivered via pdf, facsimile or by other electronic means.
