Dear Mr. Szlavik:

Pursuant to our conversations over the past two weeks, I am pleased to engage the services of yourself and your colleague, Richard Sincere, to assist the Embassy of the Republic of Burundi in setting up meetings for His Excellency Alain Aimé NYAMITWE, Minister of External Relations and International Cooperation, during his upcoming visit to Washington, D.C.

This letter authorizes you to make arrangements for meetings during the week of June 22, 2015, on our behalf with Members of Congress, Executive Branch officials, NGO executives, journalists, academics, and others.

I appreciate the advice and counsel you have already provided and hope that the events of this week lead to a long and fruitful relationship between the Embassy and you and your colleagues.

Warm regards,
