RE: U.S. Federal Governmental Relations Engagement

Dear Leader Basha:

Barnes & Thornburg LLP (“Firm”) would be very pleased to serve as U.S. federal government relations counsel to the Democratic Party of Albania (“DPA”). The DPA is pursuing this activity on behalf of the Unified Opposition of Albania, which is seeking free and fair elections during the upcoming parliamentary elections. It is important from the outset of this relationship that we have a clear understanding as to the identity of the Firm’s client in this Engagement. The Firm’s only client in this engagement is the DPA. This representation does not extend to any other governmental entity, DPA Party official, or other persons, individuals or entities who are not specifically identified in this letter.

SCOPE OF SERVICES

The Firm is being engaged to assist DPA with lobbying and governmental relations to encourage the United States to support that upcoming parliamentary elections in Albania are conducted in a free and fair manner. This will include development of a DPA Policy Group within the Firm to be chaired by Craig Burkhardt; assisting DPA with developing a close working relationship with senior members of the Executive and Legislative branches of the United States Government; assisting with establishing and maintaining positive relationships between DPA and various offices and officials of the United States Government; and arranging communications and assisting with communication strategies between DPA officials and officials of the United States government. The Firm has only been engaged to assist DPA with government relations and lobbying work as indicated in this engagement letter. In the event our engagement is expanded to cover other legal services or if the scope of our government relations work is modified or expanded, those changes to our engagement must be in writing.

Although I will be the lawyer responsible for this Matter, from time to time other lawyers, legal assistants and legislative assistants at the Firm may assist me, depending upon their expertise and experience, and with the approval of DPA. At the present time, the primary lawyers for DPA will be Eddie Ayoob, Craig Burkhardt and David Spooner. Legislative Assistant Robert Ganim will also provide support to our DPA Policy Group.

Since the outcome of any lobbying, regulatory or administrative matter is subject to uncertainties and risks, the Firm has made no promises or guarantees to DPA concerning the outcome of any project or opportunity with federal government entities, nor can we do so. Nothing in this letter shall be construed as such a promise or guarantee.

The performance of services, as listed above, may give rise to a requirement that the Firm or a legal professional of the Firm register as a lobbyist or register as a foreign agent. The Firm will advise DPA of applicable lobbying laws and the requirements imposed under the Foreign Agent Registration Act, and take reasonable care to assure proper compliance. As DPA would expect from lawyers, the Firm has an obligation not to reveal confidential information relating to the representation of a client, including information protected by the attorney-client privilege, unless the client gives informed consent. These restrictions apply to lawyers who are providing lobbying and government relations advice to clients. However, DPA acknowledges and provides such consent to disclose otherwise confidential information, to the extent necessary, to complete and comply with registration, disclosure, and reporting requirements imposed by lobbying laws and the Foreign Agent Registration Act.

This engagement is governed by the laws of the United States and the District of Columbia.

FEES

Barnes & Thornburg LLP will perform the services described above for a fixed fee of $150,000 (USD) for a period of three (3) months, starting April 12, 2017 and ending July 12, 2017. This fixed fee amount is inclusive of all reasonable and customary expenses, including travel, postage, messenger/courier, document reproduction, and wire/ACH service fees. The $150,000 (USD) fee may be paid in $50,000 installments, each of which must be received in the Firm’s US bank account prior to the start of services for the upcoming month. The $50,000 installment for April 12 – May 11 must be received before we will start services. The $50,000 fee for May 12 – June 11 must be received on or before May 11. The $50,000 installment for June 12 – July 11 must be received on or before June 11. If we do not receive an installment payment by the due date, the Firm will pause in its services until the fee installment is received. The Firm’s treatment of the payments received is governed by the standards established by the District of Columbia’s Rules of Professional Conduct. DPA consents to the Firm treating payments received as property of the Firm. However, should this Engagement be terminated prior to the end of the three months, the Firm will return to DPA any unearned portion of the fixed fee on a pro-rata basis.

OTHER REPRESENTATIONS

Before the Firm agrees to this representation, it is appropriate to spell out the expectations or standards that will govern conflicts of interest that arise in the course of this Engagement. The Firm has more than 600 legal professionals throughout 13 offices in Indianapolis, Fort Wayne, South Bend, and Elkhart, Indiana; Atlanta, Georgia; Columbus, Ohio; Chicago, Illinois; Dallas, Texas; Grand Rapids, Michigan; Los Angeles, California; Minneapolis, Minnesota; Wilmington, Delaware; and Washington, D.C., representing thousands of clients in various states, so it is foreseeable that representation of other Firm clients may be or become adverse to DPA's interests from time to time.

With respect to our Firm's government relations practice, DPA is aware that the Firm represents the interests of other persons and entities before various legislative and executive bodies, and administrative agencies at the local, state, and federal level. In addition, the Firm represents a broad spectrum of clients in many different industries in connection with a wide variety of matters. In addition, because of the Firm's size, and as DPA might expect, the Firm has lawyers and non-lawyer lobbyists with many different views and philosophies. Some of the Firm's lawyers and non-lawyer lobbyists are from time to time involved with the political process for various candidates and causes, sometimes interests which in some cases, might be adverse to the interests DPA seeks to promote through its engagement of the Firm. We do not believe that our representation of these other clients with points of view that differ from DPA's will affect the Firm's ability to provide competent and diligent representation to any of our Firm's clients. Notwithstanding the above, our Firm will not represent other parties in a lobbying matter directly adverse to DPA. For example, we would not and could not concurrently advocate contrary positions for two clients before the same body or agency on the same issue. However, from time to time it is possible that we may take positions on behalf of other clients that may indirectly impact DPA's interests in matters in which we do not represent DPA. Thus, as a condition of the Firm's undertaking this engagement, DPA must agree to waive all legal, business, and political conflicts which exist or may arise as a result of the Firm's representation of DPA and any other person or entity.

TERMINATION OF SERVICES

Our engagement will terminate on July 12, 2017, unless the Firm and DPA should desire to extend the engagement in writing. DPA may terminate this engagement earlier by providing the Firm with a thirty (30) day notice. The Firm may terminate this engagement for nonpayment of our fees and where we are required or permitted to do so by the Rules of Professional Conduct after giving DPA reasonable notice and allowing time for DPA to engage successor counsel, if necessary.

Upon termination of this Agreement by either party, the Firm will be entitled payment of all outstanding unpaid invoices and to payment for services pro-rated through the date of termination.
CONCLUSION

If this letter accurately sets forth the engagement and DPA's understanding, please so indicate in the space provided below and return a signed copy of this letter to me. We ask DPA to acknowledge that, in reviewing and executing this letter, DPA has not relied on any advice provided by the Firm, but instead has acted solely in reliance upon the advice of other counsel.

I look forward to working with you on this matter. If you have any questions, please call me.

Sincerely,
