This Amendment to Registration Statement is filed to correct deficiencies in the Supplemental Statement for the six months ended June 30, 1988.

Items 20, 22 and 23 of the Supplemental Statement referred to above were answered in the affirmative, because any propaganda material disseminated was already on file with the Justice Department.

If Items 20, 22 and 23 sought to elicit information as to whether new propaganda material was disseminated, and was properly labeled with the Statement required by Section 4(b) of the Act, then Items 20, 22 and 23 should have been answered in the negative, because no new material was disseminated during the reporting period.

Item 15(a) should have been answered in the affirmative and referred to Schedules I and II attached with the Supplemental Statement.
